PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Though the whole world is staggered by a profound concern for the future of our civilization, there must be somewhere a center of calm and assurance. That center can be found only in the mind and in the heart.

The fear of war must give place to a deepened confidence in the good that still exists in human nature and in the will of the great majority of human beings everywhere that there shall be peace on earth.

The supreme requirement of the hour is a dynamic leadership of youth, clear of mind and clean of heart, dedicated to the cause of peace through the education of all of the children of all of the people in freedom, and in the fellowship of God and of all men.

The fate of civilization rests in the hands of those who teach. At no time in our history has the responsibility of the teacher been greater for the preservation of these ideals of civilization which we cherish.

May your leadership contribute to the perpetuation of these ideals!

May you know and experience the joys and blessings of success in the years to come!

John Kelly

DEDICATION

A dedication is a serious undertaking; and we, the Class of 1950, wish to be sincere when we make our dedication to world freedom.

Freedom from oppression seems to have no meaning in the world of today. It is a term we read about, only a hope in the hearts of men, a memory for none.

In our four years of college we have studied the economic, geographic, scientific, and social aspects of the world. This has placed an enormous responsibility on our shoulders. We have been freed from the ignorance that blinds those who work knowingly and unknowingly to destroy freedom.

As teachers, as leaders, it is our solemn duty to lead our fellow men. Maybe we can start one infinitesimal fire of freedom somewhere—a fire that can be fanned to a blaze strong enough for the entire world to feel its heat!

We realize that this will not be an easy task, but we accept it as a challenge.

WINTER

SPLENDOR

The background of the page is a sepia-toned photograph of a building. On the left, there are several tall, white, fluted columns supporting a dark roof. To the right, a brick wall is visible, featuring a large, multi-paned window and a ship's steering wheel mounted on the wall. The ship's wheel is a large, dark metal wheel with many spokes. In the foreground, there are dark, leafy bushes.

ALMA MATER

Within thy life we grew;
The task you set we knew;
To burn thy beacon bright
Where fall the rays of right.

Chorus

- Alma Mater, thy children strive
To keep thy faith alive;
- Alma Mater, we sing for thee
This song of loyalty.
- Alma Mater, thy voice alone
Will guide in paths unknown.

Within thy life we sang
Of love and peace that rang
Throughout thy sounding halls,
Now memories in thy walls.

Beyond thy life we raise
Thy worthy name in praise;
Where e'er we chance to be;
We honor B. T. C.

CAMERA CLUB

Considering its absence from college activities for six years, Camera Club has made many important strides in reestablishing itself as an integral segment of campus life. ## THE SPORTS PROGRAM

The sports program of B.T.C. is maintained by the Men's Athletic Association and is supervised by Athletic Director Frederick Meier and Coach Edward Swenson. Varsity squads in soccer, basketball and baseball engage in intercollegiate competition; while class squads compete in touch-football, basketball and softball, as a part of the fiery intramural program.

Starting from scratch, the post-war program of the M.A.A. has reached a commendable peak due to the excellent spirit displayed both by the competing athletes and the entire student body. The success of the sports program is one of the most concrete manifestations of the Bridgewater spirit.

BASEBALL 1949

SPARKLES FROM THE DIAMOND

Lost year's baseball squad showed the results of diligent practice, by placing on the ledger a record which was definitely a credit to Bridgewater. Sargent Smith, Warren Thuotte and Don Morey turned in fine performances on the rubber, while Captain Ricky Sargent teamed up with Will Ford, and Mol Dillon and "Hop" Mazukina produced at the plate.

Marsh Douthort turned in the fielding gem of the year to sew up Sargent Smith's three hitter against Durfee and to sweep the series. Captain Sargent's big bat helped to subdue Durfee twice. Suffolk University was the only tough nut which the locals couldn't crack.

Coach Edward Swenson found himself with a strong nucleus about which to build this year's squad for a successful season.

JOTTINGS FROM THE FIELD

A determined, senior-studded soccer squad matched the pluck of its co-captains, Poul Solley and Wolter Morrison, to turn in the most successful season recorded at B.T.C. since the war. Coach Edward Swenson provided the strategy but found it unnecessary to inspire this outstanding eleven.

Opposition was provided by Durfee Technical, New Bedford Textile, Boston University, Suffolk University, and Fitchburg Teachers College. The outstanding victory of the year found the Bridgewater locals displaying a well-oiled offense backed by a solid defense to upset a highly-touted Boston University combine. A penalty shot by George Poppo's matched an early B.U. score, while a clever left-footed drive by Poul Solley provided the margin of victory.

Co-captains Poul Solley and Wolter Morrison were ably assisted by such versatile performers as "Hop" Mozukino, Gene Morgozzi, George Poppo's, Warren Cooke and Burnham Miller. A bright future was promised by the work of returning underclassmen: Chester Smolski, Frank Souza, Don Cognino and Frank Curran.

INTRAMURALS

A three-team touch-football league presented a fiery display of clean, hard competition during the brisk fall afternoons. A fighting Eagle team, captained by Sam Gomez, showed its stamina by coming from behind in two successive games to capture hard-fought victories. Thirty students engaged in this program and the vigorous cheering of wildly partisan spectators indicated the interest which it aroused.

The excellent response to the touch-football program has prompted Warren Thuotte, president of M.A.A., to lay plans for the organization of a greatly enlarged softball program.

Get that ball!

Varsity Basketball Team

PERSONALITIES

Soccer co-captains, PAUL SALLEY and WALTER MORRISON, win our opening salute for their inspirational leadership. Basketball captain JOE KUDERA shared honors with GEORGE "Swish" PAPPAS; while on the diamond, JOHN HUGHES, FRANK HENNESSY and WARREN THUOTTE were the stars. "HAP" MAZUKINA, MARSHALL LAFORET and DICK HOVEY proved to be all-around performers, while rugged IZZY GREENBERG distinguished himself as the most dependable. We salute a host of other fine athletes led by BOB LEMOS, GENE MARGOZZI, WARREN COOKE and BURNHAM MILLER.

BASKETBALL

THE BIG FIVE

Coach Edward Swensen, Captain Joseph Kudera, and Manager Henry Hicks led a spirited but inexperienced Bridgewater array into the third year of competition in the Southern New England Coastal Basketball Conference. Eight league encounters were supplemented by eight independent set-ta's to round out a rugged schedule. League opposition was provided by Stanhill College, Bryant College, New Bedford Textile and Bradford Durfee Technical. Independent competition found B.T.C. engaging Salem Teachers College, Suffolk University, Rhode Island College of Education, and Curry College.

A pre-season encounter with the Alumni clearly showed that Bridgewater would sorely miss such veteran performers as Bob Teahan and Ricky Sargent, who graduated last year. However, the work of Captain Kudera, Marshall Dauthart and Dan Marey was outstanding; and the picture was considerably brightened by the display put on by newcomers Bailey, Zaina and Nalan.

Future Swimming Instructors

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Directors Daniel Cagnina and Sam Gamez organized a well-balanced league of class basketball teams, which swung into action early in November. As we went to press, the senior squad featuring Captain Paul Salley, "Hap" Mazukina, Marsh Lafaret, Israel Greenberg, Bob Lemas, Gene Margazzi and Paul Dickie had established themselves as the leading contenders for the mythical crown. Indications were that a dark horse freshman array led by Captain George Cahill would provide the most serious opposition to the seniors. Despite the outcome of the league, each of the sixty-add competitors will have participated in some stimulating exercise.

ATHLETES IN ACTION

ATHLETIC AWARDS

An impressive ceremony was held on "Spats Night" in May, when President Jahn J. Kelly, assisted by Athletic Director Frederick Meier and Coach Edward Swenson, presented awards to senior athletes. Charms were awarded to those athletes who had accrued four varsity credits, and a certificate was issued for each credit earned.

According to M.A.A. President Warren Thuotte, the following seniors had qualified, at press time, for the respective awards.

CHARMS:

John Hughes, Dick Hovey, Joseph Kudera, Marshall Laforet, Alfred Mazukina, Burnham Miller, Walter Marri-son, George Pappas, and Paul Salley.

CERTIFICATES:

Will Alden, Bob Driscoll, Warren Cooke, Israel Green-berg, Paul Dickie, Bob Firing, Bob Lemos, Frank Hennessy, Charles Mann, Gene Margazzi, Warren Thuotte, Malcolm Dillon, and Mike Sullivan.

Intramural Touch-Football

Intramural Softball

An Anxious Moment

Officers and Board members of the Women's Athletic Association plan an active and varied program of sports. An active program? One glance at lower campus during the fall months revealed the field hockey program. The seniors captured top honors, an undefeated season. Again we sent a team to Wellesley, bringing back two wins and one defeat.

While some were aiming at their opponent's goal, others were aiming at the target. Yes, Bridgewater has female Robin Haads who develop the skill and steadiness of good archers.

Along Graveyard Way, horseshoes were heaved by mighty members of the weaker sex, while tennis, oddly enough, was being played on the tennis courts. Hikers and bikers saw the landmarks mentioned in C.O.

When the cold weather invaded, inhabitants of lower campus moved indoors to basketball, swimming, shuffleboard, social and square dancing.

BOWLING

It's difficult to tell whether the beautiful new alleys or the fact that bowling is now co-educational is responsible for the big turnout this year. Certainly, Bridgewater's Metra-Bowl is any bawler's Paradise. And what Bridgewater gal will refuse an opportunity to compete against and bowl with the men of the college?

WOMEN'S ## TUMBLING

"Squash!" To most students of B.T.C. this cry would bring visions of pie, a popular dessert in the dining hall; but, to members of W.A.A.'s tumbling team this means fun, skill, precision, laughs and exercise. The tumblers build a pyramid by climbing on each other's back, and when the top member gives the signal, "Squash," there is a squish accompanied by gales of giggles. It's a stunt that might be compared to that of the unsuccessful magician who pulls the table cloth out from under the neatly stacked dishes only to see them tumble to the floor in a heap.

MODERN DANCE

The leotard-clad members of the W.A.A. may be distinguished from other sports enthusiasts, at first by their groans of aching bones, and when that stage is passed, by sudden glissades and leaps through the air. Ardent fans may follow their preparation in the W.A.A. dance class as apprentices for the Modern Dance Club, an independent group.

Springtime is the time to oil that glove, sharpen your botting eyes and report to the softball field. After the first warkaut, complete with aching muscles and sore fingers, you are ready for the "plop ball" signal. Teams are organized and softball is under way with competition at its highest. Win or lose, the games are enjoyed by all.

For those who fear freckles, there is volleyball and badminton in the gym where old Sol can only peer in through boarded windows.

Social affairs are as much a part of the program and include the Supper Hike, the Gym Jam, the Pem Dem and the Bonquet.

TABLE TENNIS

Paddling ping-pong balls across the table in Wood's recreation room is popular, and credit may be earned at your convenience. Tournament members record their progress on a ladder, each rung matched with the one above. Champs in the '49-'50 tournament are: First, Margaret Jenkins, '50; Second, Marie Corcoran, '51; Third, Lois Melville, '52, and Jean Hassett, '53.
